organs, is solely designed to cover their own mal, practices, or to furnish the State Board with a protext for assuming powers not belonging to them and altering and amending the different County Canvasses to suit themselves. Evidently they have no mind to submit to the will of the People, as expressed through the ballot boxes; but are whom the People have ruled out,

Such being the case, it behoves our Republican friends and all other lovers of fair play and honest dealing, to keep strict watch upon the official canvass; to see that, in every instance, it conforms exactly to the County Canvasses; Canvassers to a strict account, should they transcend the law and, in obedience to party behests, attempt to repeat the outrages committed by their Democratic predecessors two years ago.

The Election-No more Figures. We hear nothing yet from Dunn county—the only county except Burnett and Lapointe not yet heard from officially.

The State Canvassers meet on the 16th of next month to canvass the votes officially and deciare the result.—Madison Argus, Nov. 30.

The Revised Statutes prescribe that this meeting of the State Canvassers shall be held, on or before the 15th day of December; the time to be fixed by the Secretary of State. Possibly the date named by the Argus is a mis-print. As to the missing counties, Burnett held no election; the return from Dunn was probably lost by the upsetting of the small boat in Lake Edward Waterhouse drunk, fined Si and copts doubt would have to foot the bill. Penin (as noticed in yesterday's paper,) and will undoubtedly be replaced; and the Cross men, we are confidently assured, have despatched a special messenger to La Pointe, to get the official and possibly some " supplements" from that remote County.

Who will be Speaker.

It may be considered as taking time by the forelock to discuss this question this early, and it may be considered imprudent on our part to even drop an opinion or a guess, as to what the Republicans may do, but at the risk of being considered impertinent, we will venture the guess that one Frank S. Lovent of Kenosha will be the Speaker of the next Assembly. He is undoubtedly the best qualified of all the opposition elect, except Hom. J. H. Knowtron, who we are informed would not be a candidate.—

Madison Patriot.

Without any disposition to foreshadow, or in-

Without any disposition to foreshadow, or interfere with, the action of our Republican friends in the next Assembly, on this subject, we may, with entire truth and propriety, say, that no man in the state is better qualified for the Speakership or more deserving of such a compliment at the hands of the Republican party, than the able, faithful and experienced member from Kenoshi

The Milwankee News and Madison Argus have suddenly and suspiciously set up an outery about frauds in the Canvass, and affect to give in stances where unfair dealing has been practised by the County Boards of Canvassers towards the Democratic candidates. It is manifest, however that these specifications reat on mere hearsay, and in the very instances cited by the Argus 41 Re, publican votes were thrown out to 18 Democratic ones. It is more than suspected, t.o., that the cry of "stop thief," raised by these twin Barstow organs, is golely designed to cover their own mal.

Messes. Editors: Under the head of "another swindle," I notice, casting about now, as they did two years ago, to in Monday's Sentinel, a charge against a worthy find some way of "counting in" the candidates man in this city, which places him in a wrong light before the public. I refer to the case of Mr. Silvernan. The facts I understand to be these. A man came into his Clothing Store, priced a number of articles, was waited upon patiently and civilly, and for upwards of an hour amused himself in priceing, selecting, fitting, out the whole store, he selected a suit of clothes, which pleased him, and fitted him. For these Learned an expensive lesson in the late cases, for heavy damages brought each them: precaution against similar could have his clothes, when he paid the balance of Mr. Silverman, who has been procedured for swinding, and who hears the could have been the court of th swindling, and who bears the reputation of an honest man and fair doaler, I ask that you will E. publish the facts.

> COMMON COUNCIL .-- A special meeting of the Common Council, was held on Monday evening. Sundry petitions were presented and referred .-A report was received from the Comptroler and Finance Committee, covering the account of J. 3. Cross with the city, and showing a balance of $17,298,91, in Cross' favor. Special taxes to the amount of $260,000 were levied_upon different Wards, for various improvements. An Ordinance was passed, requiring graders, contractors and builders, to place proper guards and lights, at night, around their works. Adjourned till Monday evening next.

M.& M.R. R. - CHANGE OF TIME .-- By reference to our Traveller's Directory, it will be seen that we have altered our ligures to agree with the new arrangement of the Mil. & Miss. R. R. Hereafter on this road, the train going West will leave this city at 9:45 A. M., going through to Prairie du Chien, and in the afternoon at 4:15 for Madison, Janesville and intermediate stations.

the Hall,

BULLARD'S PANORAMA OF NEW YORK .- SO many of our citizens have already witnessed the scenes depicted on this canvass at Albany Hall, that it seems scarcely worth while for us to say word about it. The agent, Mr. Nonron, is one of the most energetic individuals that we know of and appreciating the virtue of printers' ink to the full, has by posters and handbills, cards and advertisements drawn public attention to the paintings of which he has charge. Nevertheless, we should be wanting in our duty to our readers if we did not tell them, that the Panorama is well worth a visit-indeed, two visits. The representation of Broadway, west side, as it appeared at the date of the work, and in a great measure as it appears at this day, is exact, to the colors of the signs and the window curtains; and the like accuracy pervades every portion of the work. The thousands in our city, who have never seen New York, and the many who may never sec it, should not lose the opportunity of taking the easy, comfortable and cheap trip thither which is offered at Albany Hall. To the young, especially, the pointing offers a rich treat, and one which will be appreciated by them.

This Afternoon at 3 o'clock, and this Evening, will positively be the last Exhibitions of this work. Then it exhibits at Racine, to morrow Evening.

regular Bank Note list, this morning. Copies may be obtained at their office, in the basement of the State Bank building, corner of East Water and Michigan streets. MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT. -The Concert of the Musical Society, on Monday evening, was well attended and much enjoyed. The instrumental pieces were admirably rendered, especially the Trumpet solo, and the singing was unusually good. The "aria for Saprano," by Miss BECKER, called forth enthusiastic applause. The lady has a fine voice and sang better than we have ever heard her. On Monday, we are to have " Norma;" Miss

BECKER as the Druid Priestess; Mrs. MAHLER, as Adalgiss, Mr. Jacons as Politone, and Mr. HEISBERG, as Oraveso. The chorus and Orchestra will be full and effective, and the Opera, throughout will be performed. NUMBER OF ARRESTS FOR THE MONIH OF NO

VEHERR.-The number of arrests made by the police of this city, for the past month, were one undred and eleven, of which were for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, twenty-one for larceny, two for passing counterfeit money, two for committing nuisance, three for assault and battery, two for bastardy, two for adultary, one for bigamy, two for receiving stolen property, five for vagrancy, and one insane. There have also been during the month, sixty eight persons who have slept at the station house at different times, who were unable to find lodging elsewhere.

Milwaukee Union Relief Society. At the At Waukegan, ill, on the Soin ail, by Rev. Mr. Little, meeting of the Executive Committee of this Society, on Monday evening, Mr. George J. signation or the removal of Walker, will take place before the meeting of Congress.

The former alterative is now not probable but the other may be precipitated by the action of the Cabinet; to morrow the Precident justifies his course in sustaining the Convention on the grounds that its legality had been recognized in reality by Congress and himself, and that he is bound to accept its recognition, although he would have preferred that the whole Constitution, should have been submitted to the people. The Constitution and schedule which recently appeared in the Union, were transmitted there by Gov. Calhoun as literal transmitts, but authenticated copies are deily expected to Congress. cey of Connecticut, Black of Pennsylvania, and Gies of Michgan, side with the conspirators of Карзав.

More than this; Mr. Buchanan has written which he openly advocates the doctrine that slave and free states must be admitted part passu, for the eafety of the Union -that is; that Kansas must be slave, to balance free Minnestration, the Washington Union, now openly insists that the owners of slaves have a Constitutional right to settle in free states, and that the Free States which have abolished and excluded Slavery commit a great " outrage" upon the rights of property.

Thus far has the great conspiracy progressed To what length, it may yet go, we cannot tell, for the democratic party in the past has always vielded) to every demand of the Slave Power, and the Republican Party, which won such splendid success lost fall, has slept upon its arms, and given its opponents cause to rejoice over seeming victories.

Governor Wanted for Kansas. The Administration is understood to be about to offer a large reward for a Governor for Kan-333 who will answer the purpose. It has tried der Rufflanism, but turew obstacles in the way of the virtuous pro-slavery managers, It tried SHANNON, who was willing enough to help along the conspiracy, but got drunk, and

It tried Graps and he made ters against liberty. It tried WALKER, and instructed him with spe very party. And this he did with right good will, till the necessities of his party in the norths ern election compelled him to a show of fairnes and rejection of palpably fraudulent returns. For the faltering in duty to the Slavery Propagand-ists, of which Mr. Buchanan is the now acknowfourth step in this down hill road to despotism, ing statement, showing that slavery is taking a touthold in that free state, under the Dred Scott

"A man from Missonri purchased a farm in Warren County, on which he is now living Ho was a slaveholder in Missonri, and when he moved was a slaveholder in Missonri, and when he moved to this State brought his slaves, (some five or six in number,) with him, and now has them on his farm working, claiming that he has a right to hold them under the Dred Scott decision. Our informant is a man every way worthy of credit, and we have no doubt of the truth of his statement. Thus our readers can see the practical effect of the Dred Scott decision, which the Locotoco party has adopted as a part and pancel of their creed. No may, before that decision was made, would have dreamed of bringing slaves into lowa and hold them. But in this short time after the making of this decision, we find the free soil of lowa invaded by the Missotti slave-holder and his slaves. An instance of the same kind has occurred in Illinois, near Quincy, and we may expect to see such instances multiply unless the people return to the old landmarks of our government and bury the Locofoco party so deep that it can never be resurrected.

THE MOLASSES TRADE,-Molasses made from the Chinese sugar cane is nowsold each market day in the markets of Washington. It is raised in Maryland and Virginia. Last year, the imports of molasses amounted to $6,000,000; but and on the stand of Local December, the year previous.

Beath of General James Hamilton. General James Hamilton, whose name was once familiar to the public in connection with nullification in South Carolina, lost his life on the Is the of October, by a collision between the steamer Galveston and Opelousas, in the latter of which he was a passenger, near the coast of Texas. He was a narive of South Carolins, and about sixty-five years of age, and at the time of his death was on a visit to Texas, where he owned considerable avenually. He came from a family considerable property. He came from a family distinguished in the revolutionary bistory of the south, and served during the war of 1812, at the close of which he commenced the practice of the law in Charleston, of which city he was elected mayor for several successive years. About the year 1822 he entered the state Legislature, and in 1825 was elected to fill the vacancy in Con-press caused by the death of William Lowndes. He remained in Congress and 1829, and was known as an ultra selvocate of free trade and known as an initial advocate of free trade and southern rights. Upon the passage of the tariff bill of 1828, he autounced his intention to resign his sear, and during the summer of that year advocated the doctrine of atmed resistance to the act. He returned home, was elected governor of the state, and recommended the Leg slature of the state, and recommended the Leg slature.

John Kelly agt. R. M. Barnett and others—Plaintiff sued defendant on a note given for various wince, stated by plaintiff to be "Port," "Pale Sherry," "Burgundy," &c. Defendant refused to pay the note, on the ground that the wines were spurious, having been manufactured in this city, and not possessing a practicle of what they possed to be composed of—the juice of the grape; and that, consequently, there was no consideration. Plaintiff alleges that the nonis frivolous, and moves for judgement. The Court did not so consider the answer. The public
